1. In the course of the current program designed to reduce the salaries of administrative and technical employees of all East German enterprises, VEB Transformatorenwerk Oberschoeneweide (TRO) has been ordered to see to it that by the beginning of Plan Year 1956 only one administrative or technical worker is employed for every three laborers in the enterprise. At present TRO employs one technical or administrative employee for every 1.3 production workers.
2. VEB Transformatoren and Roentgenwerk (TRARO) Dresden has also been instructed to establish by Plan Year 1956 a ratio of three production workers to one administrative or technical employee. At present the ratio TRARO is 1.7 production employees to one technical or administrative employee.
